Terms and Conditions

- All my documentation with which I shall be applying for a visa and application are legitimate and belong to me.
- My bank statements and/or transcripts and any other paperwork that I shall use for my visa application have not been used by any other person previously to apply for a visa. If the bank statements have been used by myself or by any other party previously for another application, it has been disclosed to TGM Education staff in my country.
- If I have been refused a visa by the British, Canadian, Australian or USA High Commission to enter these countries before it has been disclosed to TGM Education staff. It is absolutely fine if you have a visa refusal previously, but this must be disclosed to us before you submit a visa application through us.
- I understand that upon arrival into these study destinations I shall be expected to register immediately; once this is done I will notify TGM Education office of my arrival.
- I understand that upon arrival into any of these study destinations I cannot change my institution for which I was given a visa without the approval of TGM Education and the High Commissions in these countries.
- I understand that upon arrival into these study destinations I cannot defer my course and start at any other start date apart from the one for which I was granted the visa initially. The only case where a deferral is possible is if I return back to my home country until the next start date is due. In doing so I must report to TGM Education in-country local office to confirm this.
- TGM Education shall not be liable to refund any deposit paid directly to the university by the student as it does not hold these monies or have any access to it.
